ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The three-headed songstress and the Mexican featherworkers are the features in the curio department of the Eden Musee this week. They are drawing well. Burton and Edwards' comedy company in "A Trip to Paris" is withdrawing the best piece ever played at a dime theater. The play is interspersed with songs, dances and specialties that go to make it a pleasing attraction.

"The Hustler," one of the newest farce comedies on the road will be made known at the Boyd Thursday evening to continue throughout the week. The company is especially strong headed by John Kemell on the male side and Mollie Thompson on the female. Everywhere the new farce has appeared it has been uproariously received and Omaha will no doubt emphasize the claims of the management that for a laugh producer "The Hustler" excels them all.

On Sunday evening next Agnes Herndon will open a short engagement at the Grand, in "La Belle Marie."

Jake Rosenthal, one of the proprietors of "The Hustler" company, and one of the best advance agents on the road, has sold his interest in the company to J. S. Davis, the best known stage manager in the city. He will not remain long here, however. His services are valuable.

SQUIRES AND BIRKHAUSER.

They Hold a Little Session and Indulge in Personalities.

The members of the board of public works should have met yesterday afternoon, but Members Murray and Kierstead were absent, and for this reason they will never know what fun they missed.

The meeting was called for the purpose of considering Mr. Squires and his street sweeping contract. There is an estimate due Mr. Squires, and Chairman Birkhauser insists that it shall not be allowed just yet.

Mr. Squires was present to inform the chairman that he would have his money or throw up the contract.

The two gentlemen not only waited for the coming of the other members of the board, but indulged in some fierce personalities while they waited.

Birkhauser argued that Squire's sweepers are no good, and he also intimated that the harbor asphalt people are trying to down him. Mr. Squires took the other horn of the dilemma, and at a meeting to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon the whole matter will be more given to the public by the two gentlemen.

NO USE FOR DUFF GREEN.

A lively meeting of the Second Ward Democratic Club.

The democratic club of the second ward held a meeting last night which came very near breaking up in a row.

The meeting was held at Sixteenth and Williams streets and was attended by about one hundred of the interested of that ward.

A committee was appointed to select delegates to the county convention to be voted for at the primaries next Thursday. This committee reported the names of Joseph Vaykka, W. F. Omsby, Will Holmes, J. P. Lund, James Murphy, Fritz Blomner and Duff Green. Meichior Leis was recommended for assessor. When the name of Duff Green was read half the men in the room jumped to their feet and the building shook with their shouts. When quiet was finally restored Charles Cameron objected to the nomination of Green on the ground that he was no democrat and had worked for Broath in the last campaign. His remarks met with the approval of a large number of those present and several others repeated the same sentiments.

A motion was made to adopt the report as presented. This was declared carried after a careful counting of noses. The confusion broke out again and threats of bolting the ticket were heard on every side. The adoption of the report was finally reconsidered and the name of Frank Probstki substituted for that of Green.

The delegates were instructed to secure the nomination of H. E. Riley for state senator, Thomas Copeck and W. A. L. Gibson for members of the house of representatives, and Charles Van Camp for county commissioner.

A motion was adopted to the effect that it was the sense of the voters of the Second ward that those candidates only should be supported who would pledge themselves to vote to amend the city charter to allow the issuing of grading bonds.

Bought a Mine.

Dr. S. D. Mercer of this city has bought a half interest in the Porter zinc and lead mine near Carthage, Mo., paying for it $30,000. It is a part of what is known as the Lamb farm, the price of an acre of which now would have been considered a large price for 100 acres not long ago.

The doctor says that in the vicinity of the mine there is quite a number of people who formerly resided in Nebraska.

COOP AND KENNEL.

Advance Notes of the Poultry and Dog Show in November.

Mr. J. R. Mearns, secretary and treasurer of the Nebraska State Poultry and Pet Stock Association, of Lincoln, is in the city. He is making preparations for a grand poultry and bench show which is to be held in exposition hall the last week of the month. Three thousand dollars has been raised and is on deposit for paying the premiums.

Mr. Mearns reports that the merchants and business men have responded very generously and rendered him all the assistance necessary in putting the enterprise on its feet. The premium list for the poultry is already completed, the premiums ranging from $10 to $100 on pens. Altogether for the dogs will be all that can be desired.

As there will be a called meeting at an early date to perfect arrangements for the department it will be well for the owners of fine dogs and dog fanciers generally to attend and assist in making up this premium list.

Mr. Mearns says the annex will accommodate 3,000 birds and 1,500 dogs. He trusts the dog fanciers will show an interest in the enterprise and avail themselves of the opportunity offered for a first-class bench show. There has heretofore been some complaint because the bench shows have not been held in the city, but the Nebraska State Poultry and Pet Stock exhibition. This has been the fault of the dog fanciers to a great extent.

NEARING ELECTION TIME.

Lycourgs Mitlades Anderson Settles His $5,000 Damage Suit.

The case in the district court against County Commissioner L. M. Anderson and his son, Fred W., for $5,000 damages for assault, which was commenced in the district court in May, 1889, by Simon Kahn, was dismissed Monday, the stipulation stating that the matter had been adjusted by the parties concerned and withdrawn by the plaintiff.

It will be remembered that this case grew out of a contest between Commissioner Anderson and ex-county clerk M. D. Roche, over a chattel mortgage record, it being charged by the former that Roche had taken the book from the county and sold it to a firm in the chattel mortgage business. When Anderson learned where the book was he after it and met Kahn, (who had been sent after it by Roche) with the book in the elevator of the First National bank building. Anderson and his friends continued until the parties reached the street. The suit in the district court was based on this occurrence.

Singers, actors, and public speakers use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is the favorite remedy for hoarseness and all affections of the vocal organs, throat, and lungs. As an anodyne and expectorant, the effects of this preparation are promptly realized.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has done me great good. It is a splendid remedy for all diseases of the throat and chest, and I have much pleasure in testifying to its merits." (Rev. C. N. Nichols, No. Tibury, Mass.)

In my profession of an auctioneer, any affection of the voice or throat is a serious matter, but, at each attack, I have been relieved by a few doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This remedy, with ordinary care, has worked such magical effect that I have suffered very little inconvenience, and have also used it in my family, with very excellent results, in coughs, colds, &c."—Wm. H. Quarty, Malton, Co. Australia.

Kabo, Kabo, Kabo—that sounds like an African name.

It means a corset "bone" that can't be broken—if it can't be broken, it doesn't stick into you—so it means a "bone" of comfort, not of contention.

It means a corset "bone" that doesn't kink—if it doesn't kink, the corset can't roll up in the middle as corsets are apt to do—so it means a "bone" that stays where you put it.

Isn't a "bone" at all, but Kabo, Kabo, Kabo; and Kabo means a corset you wear a week or two or three, till you make up your mind about it, and then go back to the store and get your money, if you'd rather have money than Kabo.

There's a primer on Corsets for you at the store.
